

Seeking expressions of interest

SOUTHWEST

If you are an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person living in the Southwest, we are now seeking expressions of interest in some exciting new training and employment opportunities, fly in and out of Busselton.

VTEC (Vocational Training and Employment Centre) empowers generational change for Aboriginal people, by providing supportive pathways into careers with Fortescue.

ELIGIBILITY:

- Identify as Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander
- Be a permanent resident of the Bunbury, Busselton, Margaret River and surrounding areas
- Must be 18 years of age or older

Fortescue VTEC engagement is targeted at local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. VTEC supports people with barriers to employment, including:

- Driver's licence
- Numeracy and literacy
- Health and wellbeing
- And much more

Where required, Fortescue's VTEC team works along with community organisations to support applicants to overcome these barriers and join the VTEC Training Program.
